Estimates in respect of matters of which the Security Council is seized

The General Assembly, having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the estimates in respect of matters of which the Security Council is seized[1] and the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[2]

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on the estimates in respect of matters of which the Security Council is seized and concurs with the observations and recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions contained in paragraph 7 of its report;

2. Approves the charge of $8 million for the period from 1 January to 31 March 2002 for the fifteen missions dealt with in the report of the Secretary-General[1] against the provision for special political missions requested under section 3, Political affairs, of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003;[3]

3. Decides to resume its consideration of the report of the Secretary-General on estimates in respect of matters of which the Security Council is seized at its first resumed session in March 2002.
